Summary Annual Report 2021

Evidence-based question and answer service on COVID-19 and other respiratory questions

Desktop helpers drafted on COPD and mental health and a palliative approach in COPD

IPCRG-WHO webinar on The Importance of tobacco cessation in primary care

A Massive Open Online Course on chronic respiratory disease in primary care settings with University of Edinburgh for RESPIRE

Growth of our social movement for Asthma Right Care and initiation of COPD Right Care

Creation by our community pharmacist network of an Asthma Right Care e-learning programme

Adaptation/localisation of materials eg on remote consultations

Continued roll-out of Teach the Teacher programme in Malaysia to frontline

Teach the Teacher programmes online in Spanish, Portuguese and English for Asthma Right Care Latin America, RECHARGE – selection of potential leaders and teachers, to strengthen capacity in the respiratory community

Digital magazine on COPD self-management (physical activity and breathing

> Improved diagnosis, treatment and care & less variation

More competence & confidence

MEMBER

COUNTRIES,

First online world conference: 249 accepted abstracts, 150 e-posters; 3 prizewinners (Bangladesh, Nepal and Sri Lanka)

PRIVATE)

DATIENTS

south critical and a second se More awareness, activation & access to care

IPCRG-CREATED VALUE

Funding the right things to benefit all

Better outcomes in more countries across more of the health system at an affordable cost

Innovation & spread

 $\wedge \wedge$

More investment in FUNDERS PUBLIC primary care & respiratory

Re CLINICIANS

Dissemination of research findings eg FRESH AIR, RESPIRE, Breathe Well, Global RECHARGE

How We Breathe: self funded film – due to launch May 2022

Leadership of stakeholder engagement in two global health programmes in 8 LMICs

Editorials, value focus eg triple bottom line, Right Care

Innovations like Dragons Den workshops to test findings of Breathe Well – recommended by NIHR

> Publication of updated primary care respiratory research priorities

Coordination of Global Health Respiratory Network

Meaningful and feasible proposals for education, research and leadership programmes eg Asthma Right Care, COPD Right Care, RESPIRE

High value opportunities at our conferences and meetings to build partnerships and to showcase the value of primary care and its multi-disciplinary workforce